as a judgment, leading to discontent in India and leading to the prestige of the Empire before the world.

London, 8th August.
Lord Wolsey, who was interviewed yesterday by the representative of the press, said he entertained the highest opinion of the military and political efficiency of the Indian army, and that more over when he published his views some years ago he expressed his praise in the highest terms, stating that English and Indian armies combined could easily conquer the whole of the Caspian. This opinion he still holds and believes that for the purposes for which it is held the Indian army is as perfect as can be.

The anxiety from his audience before the War Commission, which have been published by the press, were, he said, misleading.

London, 8th August.
Lord Wolsey, in presenting the price of Spoorbittery with thought it would be an advantage if the magnificent army of India could be represented on such an occasion.

COUNTRY CHURCH.
London, 8th August.

The match between Gloucestershire and Essex resulted in Gloucestershire winning by an innings and one hundred and twenty-two runs.

Essex has beaten Surrey by an innings and one hundred and twenty-two runs.

MATTERS GROW WORSE IN GREECE.
London, 8th August.

The situation in Greece is daily becoming more serious. The Hellenic army at Heraklion are attacking the Turkish forces, and the authorities here seem powerless to stop the outrages. The British Consul has hurriedly gone to Candia.

TURKEY AND BULGARIA.
London, 8th August.

It is reported at Sofia that the Bulgarian troops tried to cross the Bulgarian frontier, and that they retired after exchanging shots with the Bulgarians.

DEATH OF THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE BENGAL ARMY.
Calcutta, 7th August.

General Sir William Buller, commanding the Bengal Army, was killed with a violent attack of cholera while on duty at Naini Tal, and expired in a few hours.

THE IRISH LAND BILL AND THE LORDS.
London, 8th August.

The Irish Land Bill has passed the Committee of the Lords, but the opposition is broken owing to Lord Salisbury privately threatening to reconsider the position if again defeated on any important amendment.

DESTRUCTION OF A KING'S WIDOW.
Calcutta, 30th July.

Yesterday, before Mr. Colman, Assistant Magistrate, Alipore, Ali Mera, a relative of the late King of Oude, was charged with the charge of the death of the late King of Oude, by cutting off her nose with a knife. He had married her with the permission of the Government, but they were not happy together. One night the man, Oude, his wife's room and almost off her nose with a knife, and she died. The complaint yesterday asked permission to withdraw the case.

The Police objected, but His Worship observed that the case was between husband and wife, and permitted a compromise.
